BARCELONA AT A GLANCE

With 5.3 million people in the metro area, Barcelona is the 6th most populous city in the European Union and is extremely influential in the areas of commerce, education, arts and entertainment.

Barcelona is more and more becoming a home to expats (non-Spaniards) who live in the city because international corporations have a headquarter there. Because English is the largest unifying language within Europe, there is a tremendous opportunity for an English-speaking, international church plant to take root and make a huge impact for the Kingdom of God.
