

CHURCH PLANTER WANTED

ENGLISH SPEAKING

Join us! We're starting international churches in strategic cities around the world!

CATALYST, the Church Multiplication mission of The International Baptist Convention is searching for a church planter to start an English-speaking, international church in Lima, Peru.

We are looking for someone to...

identify communities of English-speaking internationals residing in Lima develop intentional relationships and inroads within the focus communities, make disciples and cultivate a new, self-sustaining local church.

You will use your spiritual gifts and natural abilities to make and reproduce disciples, leaders, small groups, and other churches among the international people of Lima.

Bonus: You will be part of a team of leaders working together to start other international churches across South America! Learn more here.

This opportunity is for YOU if...

- You're a visionary, strategic leader
- You're an entrepreneurial, pioneering self-starter
- You're a relational, evangelistic disciple-maker
- You're culturally sensitive and competent
- You're a strong communicator – preacher, teacher

We're taking the gospel to 230 million international expats around the world! Join us!

LIMA AT A GLANCE

Lima is the capital of Peru and located along the coast overlooking the Pacific Ocean. With a population of more than 10 million, Lima is the most populous metropolitan area of Peru and the third-largest city in the Americas.

There is a large and growing English-speaking population in Lima: English is taught in middle and upper class schools, there is a large number of wealthy Peruvians who speak English, and a growing expatriate population. Lima is ready for an English-speaking church plant to come in and plant to the Gospel.
