

CHURCH PLANTER WANTED

ENGLISH SPEAKING

Join us! We're starting international churches in strategic cities around the world!

CATALYST, the Church Multiplication mission of The International Baptist Convention is searching for a church planter to start an English-speaking, international church in Mannheim, Germany.

We are looking for someone to...

identify communities of English-speaking internationals residing in Mannheim develop intentional relationships and inroads within the focus communities, make disciples and cultivate a new, self-sustaining local church.

You will use your spiritual gifts and natural abilities to make and reproduce disciples, leaders, small groups, and other churches among the international people of Mannheim.

Bonus: You will be part of a team of leaders working together to start other international churches across Northern Europe! Learn more here.

This opportunity is for YOU if...

- You're a visionary, strategic leader
- You're an entrepreneurial, pioneering self-starter
- You're a relational, evangelistic disciple-maker
- You're culturally sensitive and competent
- You're a strong communicator – preacher, teacher

We're taking the gospel to 230 million international expats around the world! Join us!

TO APPLY: Visit internationalchurchplanting.com/plant or email: joy@internationalchurchplanting.com

MANNHEIM AT A GLANCE

Mannheim is in the southwestern part of Germany and has a population of 305,000 inhabitants. It's at the center of the Rhine-Neckar metropolitan region with a population of 2.4 million. Mannheim is an intellectual and educational center within Germany. The city is home to several major corporations and one of the most prestigious universities in Germany.

A large percentage of English-speaking international students attend the university. There is a significant population of native and international who speak English. There is a great need and potential for an English-speaking international work in Mannheim.